Gov. Crittenden's appointments thus far, gives universal satisfaction with all parties.

Bon. JOHN S. FREELAND made one of the best governors the State of Missouri ever had, and relates with the respects of all parties.— Howard Co. Advertiser.

MARRIED.—On the 5th inst., at the residence of the bride's father, Rev. G. L. Bridges of Morgan county, by Rev. Preston Phillips, Mr. Geo. A. B. Smith, of Cole county, and Miss Annie E. Bridges.—Jeff. City Tribune.

JOHN B. WARDLE has been appointed Adjutant General of Mo. by Gov. Crittenden; we are rejoiced to see our old friend occupying the place he well deserves; a better appointment could not have been made.

Gov. Crittenden on the 14th inst., appointed James R. Willis, Warden of the penitentiary. The appointment was met in the Senate at 8 1/2 o'clock p.m., and in two minutes thereafter the appointment was confirmed by the unanimous vote of the Senate. This is a flattering but deserved compliment to a worthy and efficient officer.

It is assured that the next United States bonds will bear interest at the rate of 3 per cent. This is cutting it down pretty close.
In hard times there is no doubt but that the Government could get all the money it wanted at this rate; but it is not so certain that in these rather flush times the loan will be a success. Yet the wonderful sale of the 4-per-cent bonds seems to justify the conclusion of the Congressional financiers that what the people want is good security, no matter how low the interest may be.

It can already be safely stated that the supply of peaches in the western or southern markets next season will be exceedingly scarce. Very few peach buds are likely to escape in the territory tributary to this market.
At several points in Arkansas where the peach is made a specialty, the outlook is decidedly gloomy. Late advices go to show that the buds are killed, and fears are entertained that many of the trees are also killed.
The more observing growers state that the bark and wood are badly discolored from the action of the very severe weather, and if not killed outright, are permanently injured.—

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE has some new feature every month; it is always progressive and in the advance. The February number is now before us, and its new feature is a colored pattern for embroidery on net, the last "new thing" in armoled work. Every lady ought to have the number, if only to get this new pattern. The stories are unusually fine.
There is a spirited tale, "Beyond His Reach," illustrated; a weird one, "The Egyptian Amulet;" two novelties, one by Ann S. Stephens, both powerful; a sketch by that inimitable humorist, "Josiah Allen's Wife," and numerous other stories, by Frank L. Bonediot, and others, all original, and all by American writers. The principal embellishment is a stalwart, "The Last Babe in The Woods," one of the most charming that we have ever seen. The patterns or fashions, for the work-table, etc., etc., are almost countless. It is impossible to conceive how a lady's book could be better. "Pelemon" is undoubtedly, as it claims to be, the cheapest and best of its kind. The terms are but two dollars a year, with great reductions to clubs, and beautiful premiums to the person getting up a club. Now is the time to get up clubs. Specimens are sent gratis for this purpose.

Sabbath School Report.

The old year is past, and the new year begun; and "Pleasant Hill Sabbath School" has also begun its second year of life, activity and work. It is not well to look back on the past, only for present and future benefit.
Organizing the Sabbath School the first sabbath in January, the year 1880 has carried a full report into eternity; and what kind of report was it? Whether good or bad, the "judge of all the earth" will decide; but, from a human stand-point, it was laden with joy and sorrow,—prosperity and adversity, pleasure and work, encouragement and discouragement; with all these, a clinging Faith and Trust in the Almighty Arm has been rewarded by "help in time of need."

January 2nd, 1881, was the time for the annual election of officers; and the following were elected—via: Supt., Mr. S. J. Parker; Secty., Mrs. S. J. Parker; Treas., Mr. S. T.
Harrison.

Laying the old list of names for 1880 aside with the old year, and beginning anew with the new year, there are now in the new roll of names, forty scholars in five classes; and a cordial invitation is given to each and every one to come and help make the number much larger.

"We have not what's before us;
What trials are to come; But each day passing o'er us"— brings its own duties, and its own rewards.

Published by vote of school.

Died.

Judge Wm. Port of Jefferson City died on 13th inst. The Journal of the 14th says:

The funeral of the late Judge Wm. Port, of the county court, took place to day at 10 o'clock from the Catholic church, and was very largely attended, and the ceremonies were very impressive. They were conducted by Father Hitz, as master of ceremonies as stated by the following press: Father Von Hesse, of Ours Creek, Osage county, who delivered a very eloquent sermon, paying a fitting tribute to the deceased. The deceased was a man of great personal integrity, and a man of high character, and will be greatly missed by his friends and fellow citizens.

Col. Thor. Monroe died this morning at his residence in this city, after an illness of several weeks, of cancer in the stomach. He was between fifty and sixty years of age, and was well known to Central Missouri, and represented this senatorial district in the Twenty-first General Assembly.

Mrs. Edward Lumpkins, near Hickory Hill, died last week.
